Join The Fashion Class® this Summer!
NYC's only Fashion Design Camp for Teens that teaches both sewing & the business side of fashion . . .

WHO WE ARE

The Fashion Class is a year round fashion design and sewing studio located at 21 West 39th Street in the garment center of Manhattan. We offer the only camp for teens that both teaches sewing as well as the "business" side of fashion. Now in our third season our Teen Summer Fashion Camp will explore different facets of the fashion industry and spend the afternoons in the sewing studio creating actual garments.

Since 2010 The Fashion Class has offered fashion design and sewing classes & camps to children & teenagers in NYC.

WHAT WE DO IN FASHION CAMP

Daily Schedule:

- 10am-11am Fashion Illustration
- 11am-1pm Field Trip/Guest Speakers
- 1-1:30 Lunch
- 1:30-4:30 Sewing in studio

During Fashion Camp at TFC campers will sew, drape, shop at Mood Designer Fabrics and go on amazing trips to meet real fashion industry pros! Our past trips have included Marchesa, Tommy Hilfiger, Marie Claire magazine, Austin Scarlett and more. We also show students the manufacturing & marketing side of fashion with factory, trade show & visits to our favorite supply stores. Finally our camp wouldn't be complete without trips to the best fashion exhibits at the Fashion Institute of Technology and the Metropolitan Museum of Art Costume Institute.

“ I designed the teen curriculum to combine some of our most popular fashion activities with an emphasis on starting your own clothing line. When I was in high school all I wanted to do was work in fashion but I didn't know anyone who could help. During my senior year and throughout college I started and ran my own line – I learned a lot & met people in the industry. The line eventually sold internationally & I even had a deal with Bloomingdales! I think it's important for our teen campers to meet real fashion designers & make their own connections. They'll see different sides of fashion; design, marketing, business & get real hands on experience to help them decide which career path they may want to take later on.”
